The Mason LINE

by Chan Mason

We were deeply saddened to learn upon our return from vacation last week, of the passing of a very dear friend of ours, John Landesco.

Because John was that kind of man, we had assumed we had known him for years, but we now find we have known him for just a little over a year. It was at that time that John became a member of the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club and from that day on John became a shining example of what every good Service Club member should be.

John's every thought and deed were concerned with the human and spiritual values of life. He was most happy when he was doing something for others. Particularly he was active in rendering unselfish personal service to underprivileged children and vocational guidance work for the young people of our community. We remember last Christmas in particular, John put on a one-man campaign to obtain a bicycle for a deserving crippled youngster and also the Club's budget was in dire straits, the boy got his bicycle.

We are sure that John knew for some time that his heart ailment was the incurable type and that his mortal days were numbered, but as is true of all men who put God first and self last, John lived out his life here in Lemon Grove, free from fear of death, secure in his faith in God and love for his fellow man.

Local Couple Sends Interesting Report On Medical Meet

Dr. and Mrs. Charles William Brown of 2211 Massachusetts Ave. attended the Annual Session of the American Medical Association in San Francisco.

It was the one hundred and seventh year of the existence of the A.M.A.

In a note sent to the Review, Mrs. Brown included a clipping from the S. F. Chronicle which should be of interest to the layman.

Here is what Mrs. Brown sent: The Association has twenty scientific sections making up the Scientific Assembly. Each of these will have from two to four meetings during the session, some of them jointly with the other sections.

Here, outstanding physicians will contribute papers based on their research and their clinical experience, and these will be freely and critically discussed, not only by appointed discussion leaders, but by any doctor present.

Many of the scientific papers will be coordinated with the scientific exhibit, the largest in the world. To accommodate it even the San Francisco Civic Auditorium, one of the finest in the world, is being augmented by a huge circus-type tent in the Civic Center.

There will be 220 separate scientific exhibits, originating in medical schools, scientific foundations, hospitals, research laboratories of the pharmaceutical industry, and the clinical and bedside experience of the practitioner in the field. On Wednesday, the Gold Medal awards from these exhibits will be announced.

The scientific papers, the clinical exhibits, and special clinical lectures constitute one of the ways in which the 15,000 or more doctors who will attend this meeting in the fast-moving medical scene.

They will take their experience back to their colleagues who had to stay home—somebody who had to be mindful of the sick at all times.

Alongside the great scientific show, there is what is called the mechanical exhibit—displays of mechanical devices and services necessary to the successful practice of medicine.

Here the book publishers, the pharmaceutical manufacturers, the makers of instruments, electrical devices used in diagnosis and treatment, purveyors of special and general foods important in maintaining health or treating disease, show their wares.

Here also are displayed automobiles, ambulances, medical journals, hospital equipment, accounting, filing and record systems so essential to modern medical practice. X-rays, diathermy, artificial limbs, wheelchairs, orthopedic corsets and braces—the list is practically endless.

This technical exhibit, in which more than 300 business firms will participate, is a graphic reminder of the contribution of American business enterprise to the people's health.

The House of Delegates meets until the business of the Association has been transacted. The first order will be the election of a Gold Medal Doctor, a living and practicing physician who has

School Board to Elect Officers Tonight

An organization meeting of the board of trustees of the Lemon Grove School District will be held this evening, Thursday, July 1, at 7:30 at the school district office on Acadia St. The new five man board will be elected to elect a president and a clerk to serve during the next year. At the same time they will set the time and place for regular meetings of the board during the 1954-55 school term.

New members to be seated include Bert A. Betts, who will serve for a three year term, and Channing Mason, who has a two year term. Robert Brown, who has served on the board for the past year after being appointed by the office of the county superintendent, has been reelected for a one year term. Other members are Frank Armstrong and Harry Griffen.

The short agenda includes, besides the selection of board officers, a review of board policies and procedures, which deals with operation and functions of the trustees, and consideration of applications for use of school buildings during the summer months. All meetings are open to the public, and citizens interested in public education are invited to attend.

Grove Shop Owners Killed In Crash

The operators of the Lemon Grove Angel Shop, Elmer Boone, 65, and his wife Vesta, 51, were killed outright in an automobile crash Sunday near Two Harbors, Minnesota.

Also killed was Mrs. W. S. Bryan, of Port William, Ontario reported to have been a relative of the Boones. Four other persons were hurt in the three car crash. The Boone's car is reported to have collided head on with one driven by Ronald Koeth, 26, of Two Harbors. Koeth is in critical condition.

The Boones also operated an Angel gift shop on 30th in San Diego. They resided at 4772 Valencia Dr.

Mrs. Boone is survived by Mrs. Elizabeth Angel, San Diego, her sister.

Mr. Boone was a mason, a member of the Twelve High and the Lemon Grove Rotary.

Over My Shoulder

By A. F. "TONY" SONKA

Recently I referred to a grocery price in an article I did on the early days of Lemon Grove. So much comment has resulted that I dug up another paper, one dated May 10, 1940 and looked up the grocery ads. The paper, the Lemon Grove News, carried several grocery ads.

Checking over some of the prices in a hit-skip sort of a way, I jotted down the ones that I planned to make a comparison with current ones. Everyone knows that wages, rent, and cost of living generally have undergone a tremendous change since the war. I am listing these prices only to give a picture of early Lemon Grove, and for no other reason.

In the Lemon Grove News of that week, Spry was listed at 18c per pound. Folger's Coffee was 27c and Hill's Blue can coffee was 20c; Bacon 17c lb.; Jello, 3 for 14c; Potatoes, 10 lbs. 18c; Carnation Milk, 4 tall cans 25c; Pork Roast 15c lb.; T-Bone steak 25c lb. and Red Spot Beer, 4 cans for 25c.

If these prices make you a little homesick for the early days, bear in mind that wages were in ratio to the prices. My guess is that it took as much as, or a little bit more work to buy an equal amount of food in 1940 as it does today.

In any event, we're living now in 1954, and with all the things the present, modern generation has to offer, and whether we wish prices were lower or not, we've got to live with what we have today.

Baitkeeper Invented By Sportsman

Nobody better than Guy R. Feaster, Los Angeles sportsman, knows that necessity is ever the mother of invention.

For years, on his many fishing trips, back in the Midwest and around Los Angeles, Feaster always ran into the same difficulty—how to keep those minnows or anchovies alive in order to catch more fish?

Other fishermen told him they

Mayfair Change-Over Takes Place This Week

The change-over which will make the Big Ace Market an important link in the Mairfair Market chain takes place this week.

The personnel remains unchanged, according to Larry Childress, store manager, who was there when the million dollar Big Ace opened late in March of this year. Orchids will be distributed to women who visit the store on Thursday and Friday, he said, and various samples including samples of cereals for kiddies will be given on these days also.

Spokesmen for the Mayfair Market said that prices would be the biggest change. Immediate mark-downs, some very dramatically, will take place with the change-over. An area-wide promotion comparing former prices with present prices is being carried on to show the savings that will result by the Mayfair operation.

Under a slogan, "Get More For Your Money At Mayfair," the market has set out to prove it. The huge stock area, always filled under former management, will be loaded to overflowing. In the meat department an innovation will be made. The firm stresses that there are two grades of U. S. inspected beef: U. S. choice grade and U. S. commercial grade. Mayfair calls the former Blue Ribbon Choice beef and the latter red ribbon budget beef and the two are never mixed.

Green stamps are not available to Mayfair under the present franchise arrangement.

Jim Banister, from whose mind the Big Ace in Lemon Grove sprang, has joined the Mayfair organization and will be seen in supervisory capacity throughout the Mayfair and Big Ace chain. Banister said that several of the Big Ace stores will maintain their identity and be as they have always been, larger of the small markets in the communities they serve.

One innovation at the Mayfair is the opening of an off sale liquor department. Under Big Ace management a department was set up but it only handled beer and wine. Childress said that more service and more low prices, more quality and more unusual food-stuffs will be handled under Mayfair management. The market is open seven days a week.

Firm Announces Plans for Theatre Opening

Work has already gotten underway at the Grove Theatre against an opening date set tentatively 30 days away.

Last week the building firm of Langford and Long consummated a deal with Emily Miller, the property's owner, for the purchase of it. The sale did not include the vacant lot adjacent to the theatre.

Bud Langford, Walter and Herb Long, all members of the building firm which purchased the theatre, said that they and their wives would aid in the operation of the theatre. A wider screen will be installed and new equipment is being purchased. Popular movies will be shown and many unusual features will be offered such as amateur shows and the like.

In addition to remodeling, redecorating and refurbishing the theatre the arcade will be revamped. The arcade will house the Langford and Long building firm offices which are now located at 7350 Broadway. The barber shop has been vacated and that address will be remodeled and made available as a business location.

The firm announced they were already negotiating for CinemaScope and if it is obtainable for the theatre it will be installed some time after the opening event. Langford and Long will continue their building operations in addition to running the theatre.

Mutt Show Scheduled At Fair

The Mutt Show, where curs are carried to look like purebreds, will be held July 4 at the Southern California Exposition and San Diego County Fair at Del Mar. Youngsters from 6 to 16 can enter their pooch if it doesn't have a pedigree. Trophies will be awarded winners in five classes—best trained, smallest, largest, homeliest and funniest dressed. Ribbons will be awarded to the second, third and fourth finishers in each class.

The finals will be held at the exposition's community stage at 1 p.m. Sunday, July 4. Entry blanks can be obtained at pet shops, grocery stores or by writing the exposition at Del Mar, Plass Owen, show chairman, said.

Associated cities and towns are those areas which are not within the San Diego City limits. Associated cities include El Cajon, La Mesa, National City and La Jolla.

Associated towns include Lemon Grove, the South Bay Area, Highland Area, Northeast Area, Southeast Area and unincorporated towns.

I don't want anyone to come up with the mistaken idea that I am now falling in love with the County government because such is not the case. I'll defy anyone to prove it if they try to tell me that the few things they do for Lemon Grove are done with a feeling of affection or because they want to look out for our interests. And more, I'll show that most of the things done for Lemon Grove are in the interest of the doers of the deeds, or their friends, relatives, supporters, or bosom pals by any other name.

This friendly little introduction to my complaint on signs and billboards along Broadway in the Grove may not seem at first to be germane, but just stick with me a couple of paragraphs and I'll make my point.

When Davis Market illegally put up their huge billboard flush against the corner of Olive and Broadway, a rash of other signs, both east and west, immediately went up. Broadway today, all the way from the State Highway Department sign which lists our population erroneously as 8,300, past all the filth and rubbish which litters our main street and some of the side ones too, begins to take on the aspect of a one horse carnival town. And there's no need for it.

Our county law requires that structures, which I presume means signs, must be set back 75 feet from the centerline on Broadway. Davis Market knows this. They know because I personally told Jack Davis. I was

The Dixon LINE

By Friend Dixon

A girl who knows all the answers must know quite a lot of questionable men.

Our charming contemporary who perpetrates the Mason Line wandered far from his usual topical comments, strayed and got hopelessly lost in the field of music in a recent column. He encompassed with the rich patina of antiquity far beyond our worth in referring to Lully and Bach. We point out, gently but firmly, that Lully was in his prime 250 years ago—Bach somewhere around 125 years later. Being in the sore and yellow leaf of life we enjoy it and admit it but not to the extent that he infers.

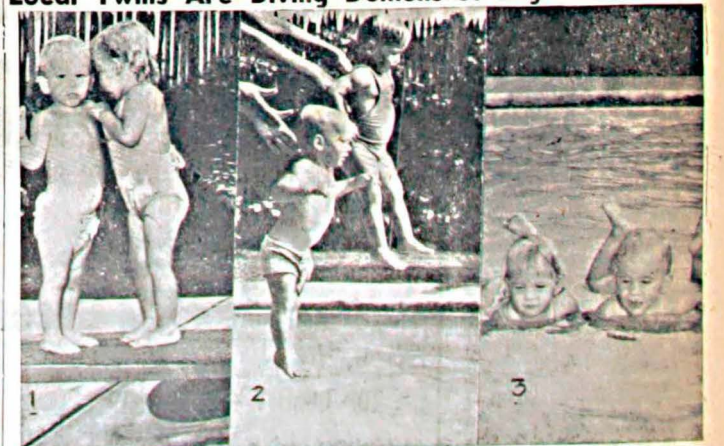

We hazard the guess that Chan Mason is in the White Mountains of Arizona. Wonderful country—the altitude is quite high so he will feel right at home. Maybe he will probably get some of that trout we have a hankering for—and in that White River country "Fairer still the woodlands Robbed in the blooming garb of spring."

The best way to get along with a woman is to make her think she is having her way, and the sure way to do that is to let her have it.

We hear that Editor Max Goodwin and Reverend Dan Apra have been elevated to the positions of President and Vice-President, respectively, of the Kiwanis Club. Our congratulations.

Local Twins Are Diving Demons of Englewood Drive

There'll be a couple of diving champs in the Ken Priest family if Pamela Anne and Peter Paul Priest have any say in the matter, but frankly, they're not talking much. Reason is that the two youngsters are 16 month old twins and swim faster than they talk.

Their parents, Ken and Alice Priest, live at 1715 Englewood Dr. in Monterey Heights and have kept the twins, as well as their other three children, just about waterlogged in the huge family pool.

The kiddies' mother, Anne, says they've been dunking the twins since they were three months old and only recently, just a day or so before the above pictures were taken, took their first solo swimming stroke. They can swim about three strokes presently but "they'll be swimming a lot more before the month is over because they love the water so," said Mrs. Priest.

Pam and Pete think nothing is more fun than being shoved off the three foot high diving board.

They make a pretty good splash for their size, too.

In the photo series above, 1. Pam tells Pete, or is it Pete telling Pam? Anyhow, they are planning a little water exhibition. 2. In they go! They naturally had to have a little help from mother for this one but given enough time to work up some courage they would jump in without resort.

3. Solo! In water well over their head, they have the nonchalance of a channel swimmer.

Company Knows Error Grows—Callers Mistake Zeros for OOOs

Telephone dialing habits in Lemon Grove are less than perfect, reported Forrest Dokken, newly named manager of the district telephone office.

Lemon Grove and other area subscribers, says he, are making nearly 5,000 dialing mistakes daily, or five per cent of their total calls.

He believes that many subscribers haven't adjusted their dialing habits to the new prefixes and seven digit numbering that were introduced here last January.

"Subscribers suffer the most from incomplete calls," he said. "Dialing irregularities generally do not reach an operator."

Statistics show many of the errors are caused by dialing the numeral "0," instead of the letter "O" in the Hopkins and Congress prefixes.

"There may be a very natural reason for this," Dokken said. "Before the number change, it was not necessary to dial the letter 'O' in any prefixes in the La Mesa calling area. The Hopkins and Congress prefixes are the first time the letter 'O' has been used locally."

Four other primary reasons for dialing mistakes were given:

1. Dialing the incorrect pilot numeral. (This is the first number following the prefix. The pilot numerals with the Hopkins prefixes are either 6 or 9.)
2. Omitting the pilot numeral.
3. Dialing incomplete numbers.
4. Dialing old prefixes.

The telephone company now employs three full time women in the San Diego office to assist new telephone subscribers in their dialing habits. Special equipment records the number of calls placed daily, along with the number completed.

Another reason for the unprecedented number of local dialing irregularities is believed to be that some may still be dialing numbers from business stationery printed with the old numbers. Others may still be using old personal number lists.

Dokken said free personal number booklets may be obtained by calling the local business office. They will be mailed upon request.

He suggested three basic steps to good telephone usage:

1. Look up all numbers that you are not sure of in your telephone directory.
2. Before dialing, jot the number down. With the number before you, when you dial, you will save time and the embarrassment of wrong numbers.
3. Listen for the dial tone, then carefully dial the first two letters and the numeral in the prefix, followed by the remaining four digits in the number.

Woman's Combined Luncheon Affair Attracts 75

A combined luncheon of the Junior, Senior and Vogue Section of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club was held at the Town and Country Hotel, Mission Valley, in the "Club House." This is the first time in the history of the club that a combined graduation luncheon has been held. A delicious lunch under the chairmanship of Mrs. Evelyn Major was served to 75 members and guests. The speaker's table was decorated with white daisies and gardenias. At each plate were mint cups topped by miniature mortar boards depicting the graduation.

Mrs. Leon Meyer, new president of the Juniors, introduced the past Senior advisors, Mrs. A. C. Bourquin, Mrs. Wesley Herbert, Mrs. Irving Vernier and Mrs. A. P. Schnell. Mrs. Meyer then asked the past junior president, Mrs. James Martin, to give a resume of the work done by the graduating members, Mrs. Al Rarstow, Mrs. Cyrus Butler, Mrs. Paul Shipp and hand them their diplomas.

The new senior club advisor, Mrs. Hal Crow, gave a short talk on the meaning of club work and introduced the graduating members, senior first vice president, who was acting president in the absence of Mrs. David Hentigan. Mrs. Richardson welcomed the graduating Juniors into the Seniors and presented each with a lovely corsage and one year paid membership in the Lemon Grove Woman's Club.

Mrs. Richardson introduced the acting chairman of the Vogue Section, Mrs. Dorothy Smith, who in turn presented the Senior coordinator, Mrs. George Loveday, who explained the "whys and wherefores" of the section.

A L. G. W. C. Jr. board meeting was held Tuesday, June 29, at the Woman's Club House, to which all board members and chairmen were invited, to discuss the year book for '54 to '55. This was the first board meeting of the new administration.

Grove Couple Marks Golden Anniversary

—LENOX FOTO.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Stanley of 2212 Lawton Dr., Lemon Grove, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday, June 13 with a luncheon for 20 relatives held at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Marian Batchelder of 2242 Lawton Dr.

In the afternoon, open house was held in the Stanley home for neighbors and friends.

Samuel Willard Stanley and Florence Helen Hatfield were married in Chicago, Illinois on June 14, 1904. The following year they moved to California and after living for a time at Gardena, they bought a ranch at Tustin, Orange County, where they lived for 43 years. Last year they found themselves victims of the march of progress when the new Santa Ana freeway was routed through the home place. It was then they decided to move to Lemon Grove where they recently completed their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley have two daughters, Mrs. Helen Stanley Smith of Newport Beach and Mrs. Marian Stanley Batchelder of Lemon Grove, as well as six grandchildren.

CITRUS RESIDENTS PAY TO HAVE ROAD IMPROVED

Residents of Citrus St. between Central and Daytona, have worked out a program with County Surveyor Joe Mack for the repaving of the street on which they live.

Under an arrangement by which the residents pay for a share of the work and material, the work has been approved.

LOCAL PEOPLE SCOOT TO L.A.

It's July in Lemon Grove but it's Christmas for some of the local business people.

Bob and Gayle Lindley, for example, took a day off to fly to Los Angeles, buy their Christmas merchandise for their Owl Rex-all Drug Store, and returned, all in one day.

Roy Lane, operator of a shoes and men's wear business, also took a Los Angeles trip. He was buying for early fall, however.

100,000 New Churches Needed by 1975 Says Authority

An increase in church population to some 120 million people by 1975 is seen probable today by Warren J. Taussig, a Director of Church-Industry Relations for the National Association of Manufacturers.

He cautions that this 28 million increase over 1952 will bring about the need for over 100,000 new churches at a cost of nearly $8 billion.

Writing in the current issue of The Christian Herald, Mr. Taussig points out that an "irresistible force is at work in America today, testing the resources and ingenuity of every person interested in the welfare and mission of his church."

This force, he explains, is the steady increase in population which is expected to approximate 200 millions by 1975. Although the problem of providing the church buildings is great, the writer stresses that one of the most important elements of a national church program is the availability of trained clergymen to staff expanded facilities.

He estimated that by 1975 it will be necessary to have 260,000 clergymen, approximately 75,000 more than in 1952.

Citing the current shortage of clergymen, Mr. Taussig states that "in a large sense it is the thoroughness with which our seminaries are blueprinting tomorrow's needs that will spell the answer to whether the churches have anticipated and met the challenge of 1975."

Peg Darroch to Head up Cal. Schools Public Relations Association

Peg Darroch, English teacher at the Lemon Grove Junior High, has been appointed chairman of the California Schools Public Relations Association according to word received from the California Teachers Association, Southern Section, Board of Directors. The association, which meets every two months in Los Angeles, is a state affiliate of the National Schools Public Relations Association.

At the same time, Mrs. Darroch assumes chairmanship of the Public Relations Committee of the Southern Section Council, a group which includes teacher association representatives from seven southern counties and all cities in Southern California. Mrs. Darroch's previous experience in the public relations field includes services for five years as PR chairman of the Lemon Grove District Teachers Association and two years as PR director of the San Diego County Teachers Association.

Every day of the year in our Mexican-border region we witness the phenomenon of less fortunate persons risking everything, even their lives, for the chance to slip into America. Just to live here in what we call poverty is a relative paradise, says "Pappy" Hensley, our Fire Chief.

Couple Opens Furniture Store Here

—LENOX FOTO

Larry and Phyllis Spica, Foot-hills residents, have taken over the building formerly occupied by Nu-Way Furniture and will hold an opening event within the next few days.

The couple, well-known in furniture circles, plan to handle national brands and popular lines of furniture, appliances and carpets at the 7904 Broadway address. The firm will be known as Town House Furniture.

None of the merchandise of the former firm will be stocked. Harold Preston, owner of the Nu-Way said that his stock had been disposed of via High Dollar Auction. Preston closed the store because of considerations of health. He had operated in Lemon Grove for a little more than a year.

The Spicas said that they would attempt to bring home owners good merchandise at a price within the popular price line field.

'Play it Safe if You Drive' Pleads Safety Council

Warnings were posted today from San Ysidro to Oceanside and from San Diego to Jacumba by the San Diego County Traffic Safety Council in preparation for another long week-end when San Diego County highways are expected to carry a record load of travelers.

"With even normal highway traffic up over last year, the number of automobiles expected on the highways over the July 4 week-end will equal or exceed that experienced over Memorial Day," Fred Rohr, Traffic Safety Council president, said. "Again enforcement departments will have maximum forces working to control the movement of traffic but the prime responsibility rests with each individual driver," he added.

Rohr listed several simple rules to follow for vacationing drivers:

1. Know and abide by the posted speed limits on the roads that you travel and remember that these limits have been determined on the basis of what is considered safe speed for normal conditions!

2. Plan your trip carefully, allowing more than enough time to reach and return from your destination.

3. Do not take chances, seconds saved often mean lives lost.

4. Watch out for the other fellow, he may have his family riding with him, too.

The traffic fatality toll for San Diego County so far in 1954 moved within five of the 1953 figure for the same period with the tragic death of a mother and two children in a train-automobile accident at Solana Beach.

Sixty-eight persons have been killed this year up to June 25 as against 73 for 1953. Forty-six of the 68 were from the rural highway areas of the County, six more than in the previous year. Four persons have been killed in County cities as against seven for 1953, and 18 have met death on San Diego streets as opposed to 26 for 1953.

IT'S A 'COOL' BUSINESS SAYS LEMON GROVE COUPLE

A Lemon Grove family has coupled ambition, energy and ingenuity to start a thriving business in El Centro.

Paul Mann, 7418 Roosevelt Ave., formerly associated with the Maryland Hotel, together with his wife Layelle and two sons, David and Steven, has opened a business handling swimming and wading pools, and inflated toys for pools and beaches in El Centro.

The fact that the temperature touched 115 degrees several times since they opened the El Centro location contributed much to their thriving business. Paul, a deacon in the Lemon Grove Congregational Church, was associated with the Maryland Hotel prior to opening the swimming and wading pool business.

CHURCH SCOUT TROOP TO HAVE BREAKFAST

Boy Scout Troop 171 of Trinity Presbyterian Church will hold its annual breakfast in the patio of the church on July 17. Price 35c. The public is invited to a fine breakfast to help the scouts carry on their activities.

"This show should attract such a crowd" said Dr. Gigliotti, "that we have arranged to use the largest room at the Youth Center and even that seats only approximately one hundred, but this picture is quite wonderful and well worth seeing from any number of standpoints."

This part of our program takes about 35 or 40 minutes and another 10 minutes will be devoted to the previously announced subject, "The Quick and the Dead," and strong parallels may be drawn to show its relation to us and our time.

Our reliable "film producer" "Bob" Bloom will be at the controls as usual.

LIBRARY SETS READING PROJECT FOR CHILDREN

A reading project for grammar school children has been announced by the Lemon Grove Library. Certificates will be awarded to boys and girls reading 10 or more library books during the summer, says County Librarian, Frances Hahn.

Additional books for summer reading have recently been added to our library, which already is the third largest of all San Diego county libraries for the number of volumes available.

Those visiting the library enjoy a changing art display from month to month. Two out of every three months the Foothills Art Association, covering El Cajon, Spring Valley, La Mesa and Lemon Grove, have selections on exhibit. The third month is open to our own, local Lemon Grove talent only including art works from students in Lemon Grove Schools.

A welcome is extended to everyone to see the library for reading books, magazines or references. The staff of three is headed by Mrs. Ruth Pedler.

Student Art Show To Be Held at State Fair

SACRAMENTO—Lemon Grove students from universities, colleges, and private art schools will vie for top awards totaling $2,625, in the Arts Show at the 100th anniversary of the California State Fair and Exposition in Sacramento, September 2 through 12.

The highest award for students is the scholarship of $500 offered to the student among all first prize winners, whom the judges deem, shows the greatest promise. Ten honorable mentions of $10 may be awarded.

ILL LUCK ON WEDDING NIGHT

LOOKING LOVELY in wedding gown, Myrna Farber shows motorists to another lane while Marvin Hirschhorn, bridegroom-to-be, labors mightily to change tire which went flat while were en route to ceremony in Brooklyn, N. Y. (Internat.)

Three classes of competition are open to students: college freshman and sophomore competition, $675; junior and senior, $675; private art school, $675. Each class is limited to oils, water colors, and prints. All entries must be delivered to the fairgrounds by 5 p.m., July 8. Judging will be held on July 17 and 18.

BANKERS MARK FIFTH ANNIVERSARY FOR THEMSELVES AND THEIR FIRM

Jack Koop and Bruce Harms Check a Five Year Old Newspaper
The Lemon Grove branch of the First National Bank marked its fifth anniversary this week. The bank, now preparing to build a new, larger building at Imperial and Golden, has all but burst the seams of its present location on Broadway.

LENOX FOTO

Jack Koop and Bruce Harms, manager and assistant manager of the bank, look over a five year old newspaper which headlined the opening event.

The article tells of "more than 2,000 persons" attending the formal dedication on June 28, 1949. The bank opened for business on the 28th.

Three war bonds were awarded following a drawing and 300 kiddies received comic books. At that time Koop and Harms held their present positions. Sam Erwine, Nan MacDougall and Marilyn Marcoux were the other employees. Now the bank employs 15.

Plans for the new bank will soon be completed, a spokesman for the organization said. No definite completion date has been given but it is expected that the building may be ready for occupancy near the first of the year.

Mr. Anderson Borthwick, president of the First National Bank, issued the following statement:

The new bank will be designed in keeping with the high standards of quality and beauty of other recent new construction in Lemon Grove. The site will include more than 23,000 square feet of free off-street parking area.

We believe that the proximity of the Lemon Grove area to the heart of San Diego—soon to be increased by the proposed new Freeway—and the ample number of good building sites still remaining, destined Lemon Grove to maintain its place for some justified the confidence we expressed in this area when we opened a First National Bank here five years ago.

As soon as plans can be drawn and approved, we expect to start construction of a spacious new building at the southeast corner of Imperial and Golden Avenues.

This banking facility will be one of the most modern in Southern California and it will be built to care for present as well as future community banking needs.

Soft Water Week Set for September

Dates for the first National Soft Water Week have been set for September 12-18, 1954, according to the Water Conditioning Research Council and the National Association of Soft Water Service Operators, sponsoring organizations, according to V. A. Stevens, local Culligan dealer.

Russell D. Lund, council director, reports that dozens of manufacturers, suppliers and allied industries will join 3500 soft water service operators and water conditioning equipment distributors during Soft Water Week to bring to public attention the facts of the values of soft water in the home.

"Eighty-five per cent of the area of the United States has naturally hard water," says Lund. "And mentioning only one of many values of soft water," he adds, "we can point to $550,000,000 in excess amounts of soaps and detergents that American housewives are spending annually to combat hard water in sinks, washbowls and laundering equipment."

Observance of Soft Water Week on the local scene will be a principal feature of the event throughout the country, according to Lund.

Contest-Time . . . For the benefit of those who didn't read my column last week I'll repeat the rules of my contest. I want a new heading for this column. The winner will receive a real cool surprise gift. Here are the official rules: (1) Print your suggestion for a new title on a plain piece of paper. Print your name, address and phone number on the paper, too. Include the date line from one Lemon Grove newspaper. Mail to Bob Turnbull, in care of The Lemon Grove Review, P. O. Box 146, Lemon Grove, California. Envelopes must be postmarked before midnight, July 9 (Friday). (2) Enter as many titles as you wish. Write each entry on a separate piece of paper. Each entry must be accompanied by a date line from a Review paper. The heading should be four words or less. (3) Suggestions for the new title will be judged carefully by this newspaper and our decision is final. So let's get the show on the road and win a prize.

STATE SETS EXAMS FOR RATE EXPERTS, TIMBER APPRAISERS

A group of civil service examinations will be given in the near future was announced today by the State Personnel Board.

The Public Utilities Commission in San Francisco and Los Angeles needs men and women with transportation rate experience and traffic management schooling to work as junior transportation rate experts. Monthly salary range is $341-$415.

Institutions throughout the state need supervising nurses, the board said. The jobs pay $325 to $395 a month.

Telephone technicians are also being recruited by the personnel board. The jobs, which pay $341-$415, require either a first class radiotelephone operator's license and two years' experience, or a second class license and three years' experience.

Men with timber appraising experience are needed by the State Board of Equalization to help local tax assessors in the state's tox standardization program. Depending on experience, salary range is $481-$584 or $584-$710.

Additional information and official application forms are available at Department of Employment on Columbia St. in San Diego.

Grove Pupils Score High on Tests

All pupils in grades 3 through 6 of the Lemon Grove School District completed comprehensive tests in arithmetic and reading before school's end. The tests used were the Stanford Achievement Tests which have been standardized nationally. A different form of the same test was given last October. The comparative scores appear below.

The whole number represents the grade, and the decimal indicates the equivalent month in that particular grade.

GRADE 6	Arithmetic	Reading
May '54	7.0	7.8
October '53	5.6	6.2
GRADE 5
May '54	5.7	6.6
October '53	4.9	4.7
GRADE 4
May '54	5.2	5.2
October '53	4.0	3.7
GRADE 3
May '54	3.7	3.9
October '53	2.7	2.5

When the first tests were given in October, for example, the 6th graders made scores equal to children in the 6th month of the 5th grade. However, when they were retested in May, their scores equaled those of 7th graders. In the October reading tests the 6th graders scored at the 2nd month of the 6th grade, whereas in May their scores had risen to a point where they equaled the 8th month of the 7th grade.

Although the Stanford Test was used in October and in May, the two forms of the tests were entirely different.

And speaking of our revered county bums, agreed to give us some action when he returned from an impending vacation. He eventually turned the complaint over to Clark Luen, the local county inspector. Then, after two weeks, brother Lucy recalled that he had a vacation, which he is presently taking. He did promise to invoke the law once he returns.

I don't know whether the Inspection Department really intends to perform or not but as I sit here amid a jungle of signs of various shapes and sizes, I can't help but recall the beautiful picture envisioned by the Men's Club when they described a wide unobstructed approach to our city with nary a sign within rock-throwing distance of the passers-by.

Editor, we have the impression after reading his Dimmer View column, that he sleeps with a dictionary. We go on record as being more human. After his recent attempts at political prophecy, we are prompted to quote James Russell Lowell: "Don't ever prophecy unless you know."

We learn that a nearby art association has under consideration presenting some of their pictures to the new Grossmont Hospital, which is a generous gesture. The Hospital will have the finest equipment of any in the county—we hope that the pictures will be of the same high caliber.

A dyed in the wool bachelor finally succumbed to the blandishments of a fair charmer from Macy's. After they had been married some time a friend asked him how they were getting along. The ex-bachelor said he wasn't quite so sure that he could not have got a better bargain at Gimbel's.

Get More For Your Money At MAYFAIR

Beginning today, low Mayfair prices prevail at the new Mayfair Market at Olive and Broadway in Lemon Grove. Only two big changes are being made — most important, prices are now revised sharply downward. — and the "Big Ace" sign which has guided you to the county's largest market is changed to Mayfair. Personnel, variety and service remains the same or is improved.

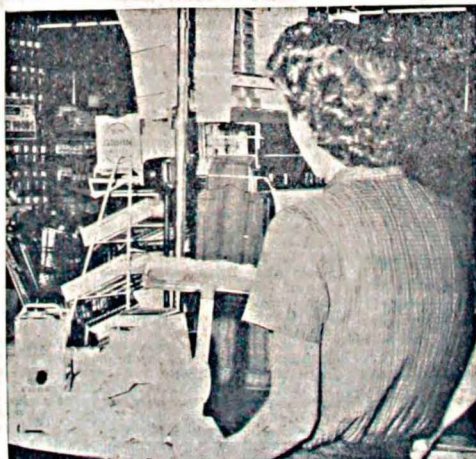

Mayfair Management

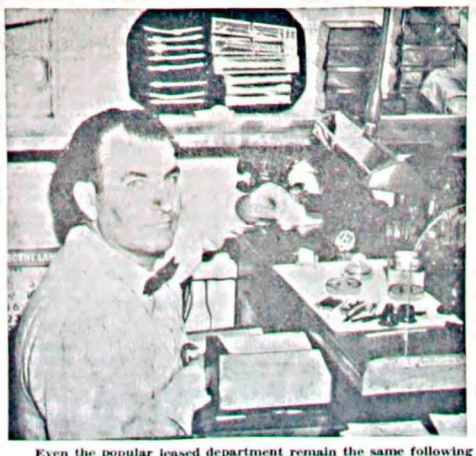

Down goes the cost of living as new, lower prices are listed for groceries, meats and vegetables as the transition to Mayfair Markets is made. Customers, visiting the market for the first time since the change-over will recognize familiar faces that have been associated with the market since it's opening.
Above, Roberta Crozier, Bonnie McFadden and Frances Kent are receiving instructions as usual from store manager Larry Childress.

Wilbur and Celia Hand, 8712 Troy Street in Spring Valley and their daughter, Carol, aged 9, are typical Mayfair shoppers. Wilbur, a Conair mechanic, likes the meat section particularly. "We like the way the meat department is arranged," he said. "Cold cuts look so appetizing the way they are prepared. I think the selection of fish is the best I have seen anywhere."

Donna Shafer, 7535 Pacific Avenue, in Lemon Grove, is one of the early Mayfair shoppers. She finds, as has her neighbors friends, that the last stop in the market, the stop at the cash register, is not unpleasant. With new, lower prices up and down the well filled rows of shelves, shopping, always fun in a big, complete market, is more fun when you know it can't be obtained for less anywhere.

Even the popular leased department remain the same following the transition. You'll see the same people offering the same merchandise and services at less-than-you expect to pay prices. Take the jewelry and watch repair department, for example. Vaughn Lerwill, with years of jewelry sales and repair know-how, instituted the department here soon after the market opened, is still doing a crackerjack job. Another familiar face to greet Mayfair shoppers.

Mrs. Roy Erwin, 8127 Golden Avenue, wife of the well-known insurance man, is a popular young clubwoman. She shops for a family of four girl children in addition to the two adults. Says Mrs. Erwin, pictured with her 8½ year old daughter, Alice, "I like the produce department at Mayfair Markets. A large variety, such as they offer here makes the shopping task considerably easier. I'll take a big market every time."
